Assicurazione	Istanbul University does not provide health services to students in exchange programmes. In the event of any health problem, you can make use of faculty hospitals and private hospitals in return of a fee. Therefore, we recommend you invest in a health insurance program valid in Turkey before you leave your country. Istanbul has many highly developed public and private health centers. You will find the necessary communication information for health services and emergencies in the Hospitals and Emergency Telephones section of your guide.
