

Progetto Shouter

Il progetto Shouter, promosso dalla città di Goyang della Corea del sud e organizzato dall'associazione onlus Unilink Social Cooperative, nasce quest'anno con l'obiettivo di diffondere una conoscenza internazionale per la pace nella penisola coreana.

Per il progetto hanno selezionato un gruppo di primi giovani ambasciatori tra studenti stranieri che studiano in Corea e studenti universitari coreani. Hanno partecipato alle attività della durata di cinque mesi formando dei piccoli gruppi per promuovere la conoscenza della pace tra due Coree, realizzando dei video sul tema della pace nella penisola coreana e caricando dei contenuti sui social: @pyeong_pace/ @shouter_hantaeri/ @5kpax.unilink/ @team_snap_2021

Il progetto viene realizzato grazie alla collaborazione dell'Università per Stranieri di Siena ed è coordinato dalla prof.ssa Imsuk Jung. L'Università per Stranieri di Siena ha la convenzione dal 2021 e 7 studentesse di Unistrasi (che si sono trovate in Corea con il programma di scambio) hanno partecipato alla prima edizione del progetto: Matilde Gugliuzza, Angela Somigli, Erestina Lybeshari, Luisa Armanni, Alice Marrassini, Hilary Cannarella, Fiorella Jose' Pinardi Hernandez.

Unilink Social Co-operative

Under the slogan, 'For interconnecting people and people. For sharing culture and culture', We have conducted an understanding Korean culture project and international culture exchange project for descendants of overseas Koreans and foreigners. The name so-called 'Unilink' has organized volunteer work like home-stay exchange as a private exchange program with Japan for 18 years. For the public interest, Unilink, one of the nonprofit corporations, was incorporated as a social co-operative in 2019.

Peace in the Korean Peninsula

We who are living in the Korean Peninsula are surrounded by matters of war and peace. The Korean contemporary history that is full of war and division was once called the outpost of the Cold War and the tension and conflict that overwhelm the peninsula has been drawn all around the world.

Peace is our goal and value that we must pursue continually. Based on deep understanding of the peaceful matter, domestic and foreign university students will share their consensus and reflection; what we need for the peace of the peninsula peace while discussing the peace of the peninsula.

Inter-Korean Exchange and Cooperation Fund

For supporting inter-Korean mutual exchange and a cooperative project, this fund foundation is established to promote South and North Exchange and Cooperation and contribute to restoring the unification community.

To enhance comprehensive support, personal and material resources exchange and various cooperation, this project has featured diverse forms, plans and conditions. "2021 Aid project of Inter-Korean Exchange and Cooperation Fund" is a regional subsidy program associated with privately operated Inter-Korean Cooperation project to expect citizens' active participation, creative ideas and forming a civil social consensus on peace and Inter-Korean Exchange and Cooperation.

SHOUT TO THE WORLD

Aiming at spreading an international consensus for Korean peninsula peace with Shouter who will be selected among foreign students studying in Korea and domestic university students living in Goyang-si for producing a video under the theme by Korean peninsula peace and becoming active SNS supporters.
